LEADERSHIP

Leadership is the art of getting someone else
to do what you want done
because he or she wants to do it.

Leadership can't be taught but it can be learned

Leadership should not be confused with management.
The leader's role is to create a vision,
not merely exercise authority.

Good leaders listen - - and they know fact from fiction.

Leaders pay equal attention to soaring ideals
and the details of execution.

Leadership lies dormant in many people,
just waiting to manifest itself.
Churchill did not become a great leader
until he was in his sixties.

The fundamental thing that business needs today
is leaders who understand
the meaning of personal responsibility.
